

FREQUENCY ADVERBS

DESCRIBING HABITS AND ROUTINES

Match column A with column B

Observe the frequency adverb and the verb in the examples

He always studies after dinner

The weather here is not very good. It often rains.

Franco is never late for his class.

We are usually ready for exams, but today we had too much to do

Is the frequency adverb after or before the verb?

After the verb TO BE.

We are usually ready for exams, but today we had too much to do.

Franco is never late for his class.

Before other verbs.

He always studies after dinner

Algebra class usually starts at 11:00, but today it starts at 10:30.

The weather here is not very good. It often rains.

More examples

Other verbs

I always help the other students.

My brother usually comes late to school.

Jenny and Susan often study in the library after class.

Verb to be

I am always a good student.

My brother is usually late to school.

Jenny and Susan are often in the library after class.

Write the frequency adverb in the correct place.

My brother does my homework. [USUALLY]

Jack, you are late to class! [OFTEN]

Sara is on time to class. [RARELY]

Your friends go to the movies on Saturday. [USUALLY]

My English class starts a little bit late. [OFTEN]

Elizabeth is a good student. [SOMETIMES]

University students go to parties on Saturday nights. [NEVER]

Jason is a flirt with girls. [USUALLY]

My brother USUALLY does my homework.

Jack, you are OFTEN late to class!

Sara is RARELY on time to class.

Your friends USUALLY go to the movies on Saturday.

My English class OFTEN starts a little bit late.

Elizabeth is SOMETIMES a good student.

University students NEVER go to parties on Saturday nights.

Jason is USUALLY a flirt with girls.