Read the theory box. Emails reviewing books, films.

Reviews are short descriptions of books, films, plays, TV programmes, etc.

They are usually written on websites/in magazines/newspapers, etc.

or as part of a letter to inform readers and to give them your opinion/recommendation about whether or not they should read the book, see the play, etc.

Present tenses are usually used and a variety of adjectives to make your comments clearer and more precise. A review usually consists of:

- an introduction giving background information about the book/film, etc., e.g. the title, type (adventure, horror, comedy, thriller, etc.), the name of author/director.
- a main body consisting of two paragraphs (one giving a summary of the plot, the other general comments on the plot, main characters, etc.).
- a conclusion recommending or not recommending the book/film, etc., giving reasons to support your recommendation.

Look at the list of adjectives below. Which are positive/negative/neutral in meaning?

intriguing, mysterious, clever, interesting, well-written, well- developed, fast-paced, slow- paced, predictable, funny, unimaginative, exciting	PLOT
mysterious, clever, interesting, likeable, irritating, dull, evil, unusual, shallow, well- developed	CHARACTERS
slow-paced, dull, unusual, predictable, unexpected, disappointing, exciting, surprising, satisfying	BEGINNING/ENDING

Read the rubric and answer the questions.

You have just received the following email from a friend:

- 1) What is the purpose of the email?
- 2) What do you have to write?
- 3) What kind of information should you include?
- 4) What style will you write in? Why?

Write your reply to Susan's email (120-180 words).

Read the email and match the paragraphs (1-4) to the descriptions (A-D).

Subject: RE: Read any good books?

Hi Susan!

1) ___ I bet you can't wait to go on holiday! Don't worry about which book to take because I've just read a brilliant fantasy thriller set in Ireland. It's called Artemis Fowl and it's by my favourite author, Eoin Colfer.

2) ___ Let me tell you a bit about the book. Basically, it's a fairy tale for our times. It's about a fairy police officer called Captain Holly Short who is kidnapped by the twelve-year-old evil genius, Artemis Fowl. He wants the fairies to pay a lot of gold to get her back. Unfortunately for Artemis, Holly Short is a member of the fairy secret police and her senior officer will do anything to rescue her.

3) ___ So, as you can imagine, the plot is very exciting and fast-paced and it is very funny, too. The characters are also well developed. There is a lot of action and interesting high-tech gadgets. The theme of good versus evil is strong throughout.

4) ___ Well, that's about it. All in all, Artemis Fowl is an excellent book that I think is very well written. I couldn't put it down from the very first page! I would definitely recommend that you read it. Have a great holiday!

Julie

A general comments on the book

B reason for writing/background information

C summary of plot
